

Please join the Friends of the Old Parliament House Rose Gardens for a fireside chat and high tea with

John and Edwina Macarthur Stanham of Camden Park

2:00 – 4:00 PM on Sunday 21 August 2016
at the Courtyard Restaurant, Mercure Canberra Hotel corner of Ainslie and Limestone Avenues, Braddon

$40 per head payable in advance by:

Direct Deposit: BSB: 082 902 A/C No: 16770 7016 (please note your name on deposit) or cheque to: Friends of OPHRG, PO Box 213, Curtin, ACT 2605

— § —

RSVP 12 August 2016
email: friendsophrosegardens@gmail.com

— § —

Camden Park was built for the Macarthur family in 1831. The convict built Palladian house was designed by John Verge and is surrounded by the largest intact 19th century garden in NSW. Rare plantings include the oldest surviving camellia in Australia, c. japonica anemoniflora. John and Edwina and their family maintain the garden with the help of a group of dedicated volunteers (camdenparkhouse.com.au)

— § —

The members of the Friends of the Old Parliament House Rose Gardens are grateful for the support provided for this event by the Mercure Canberra

Parking is free on ticket validation at the Mercure reception